

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

SEVEC youth invited to Governor General garden reception in honour of the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge

On Thursday, June 30th 2011, lucky participants from our youth exchange program will represent SEVEC at the Governor General's garden reception in honour of Prince William and Kate Middleton's visit to Ottawa.

Jessica Selin and Chris Santillan of D'Arcy McGee High School in Gatineau, QC will attend this event to celebrate the exceptional service of Canadian youth towards a smart and caring nation.

Their Excellencies the Right Honourable David Johnston, Governor General of Canada, and Mrs. Sharon Johnston, and The Right Honourable Stephen Harper, Prime Minister of Canada, and Mrs. Laureen Harper will be hosting the reception at Rideau Hall.

Each year, 5,000 Canadian youth take part in a SEVEC exchange. Youth Exchanges Canada is an enriching educational exchange program that enhances learning and gives participants an experience that lasts a lifetime.
